Hawk Mountain SAR School has a proud history of providing outstanding emergency services training. The school is conducted in the mountains of Pennsylvania under field conditions and is physically demanding.

The school is for both Officers (seniors) as well as cadets. For specific course information, visit the Hawk web site at <http://pawg.cap.gov/hawk/>. Hands on field experience of SAR, Leadership & Survival, not in a dormitory. Click here to download the 2007 Hawk Flier.

Officers (Senior members) applying to Hawk Mountain SAR School you will need to submit a fully completed CAPF 31, including your wing commander's signature, directly to PA Wing HQ, Bldg. 3-108, Ft Indiantown Gap, Annville, PA 17003. Mark the outside of the envelope "Hawk".

-Do not send Hawk applications to NHQ.

-Please visit the Hawk Mt Ranger School website for detailed instructions before completing your CAPF 31.

-Do not apply for any other activity on the same form 31 that you send to PA wing for Hawk.

-Applications will be accepted between January 31 and June 1, 2007. It is advisable to send your application as early as possible.

To serve as staff, members must complete a series of eight weekend training activities prior to the school or attend and pass the staff training squadron during the school. Returning students must indicate "Returning Student – Request Squadron ____" on top of the front page of the CAPF 31 in red ink. For (squadron requested) indicate Medic, Ranger Team Commander, Overhead Team Management, Ranger Program Coordinator, or Special Advanced Course. Squadron assignments will be made by the school staff.

Those selected will be notified by Email (if available) or by U.S. Mail starting in March. Again, we encourage you to visit our website for detailed information about the school.
